Regiments and Individuals who cannot attend to receive Payment in London, and the Heirs of deceased Persons, will be paid on granting the proper Authorities, agreeably to the Forms required in the following Regulations, which are necessary to be so particular to guard against the Impositions attempted by frequent Forgeries of Powers of Attorney and Wills, for the fraudulent Purpose of receiving Prize-Money of Absentees and deceased Persons, (by those who are not legally entitled thereto,) viz.

For a Regiment, One Power of Attorney to the proper Regimental Agent thereof, residing in London, (who will sign the Prize Lists) to be signed and sealed by each Individual alive and present at the Time, for himself only; and to be witnessed by the Commanding Officer and Paymaster, or Adjutant of such Regiment; who are to make Oath, before a Magistrate, that they saw each Individual, whose Name is subscribed thereto, sign it for himself only, and that none signed the Name or Names of another or others, whether present, absent, or deceased.

Serjeants, Corporals, Drummers, and Private Soldiers, who may have been discharged, or are not present with the Regiment they belong to, may grant Powers of Attorney to the said Agents, to be witnessed by a Clergyman of the Parish wherein they reside at the Time, and also by a Magistrate, before whom they are to make Oath, (which is to appear on the said Power,) that he or they is or are the identical Person or Persons named therein; and that he or they are actually entitled to share Prize-Money for the Capture of the said Islands in 1794, or for such of them as they may be entitled to. The Heirs of deceased Officers, Serjeants, Corporals, Drummers, and Privates, or of Persons sharing in the same Classes with them, cannot be paid without taking out Letters of Administration at Doctors Commons in London. Regiments in Ireland, who have not Agents in London, may grant Powers of Attorney to any Regimental Agents in London.

All absent Officers can, of course, receive the Prize-Money upon granting Powers of Attorney to their Regimental Agents.

Letters (Post paid only) addressed as above, will be duly answered.

For Colonel Fisher, Agent for Distribution to the Land Forces, JOHN JUDSON.
